

EDINBURGH

Edinburgh Castle

1 SIGHTS

There is busloads to see and do in this historic, compact city such as Edinburgh Castle, Palace of Holyrood, The Royal Mile, National Gallery of Scotland, Royal Museum of Scotland, Princes Street for shopping, Royal Botanic Gardens, Murrayfield home of rugby, the world's biggest arts festival during August, Hogmanay (New Year's Eve) in December. Try one of the many guided walking tours of the city – ghost tours are especially popular!

2 BARS

The Scots have a reputation to rival our own for booze and many of Edinburgh's Old Town pubs have histories going back centuries. The main drinking strip is in the legendary Rose Street, between Princes Street and George Street and your standard Edinburgh pub crawl is a half pint (ladies) in each of the dozen or so dens that line here and West Register Street. Many Scots are especially proud of the fact that a Scottish spirits measure is a bit more than an English one.

MERCURE POINT HOTEL ★★★

34 Bread Street, EH3
The stylish Point Hotel is set to the south of Edinburgh Castle, less than ten minutes walk from the hub of Princes Street. Chosen as one of the top 50 design hotels in the world, the chic and contemporary Point offers unique accommodation in a minimalist setting. When you get worn out from shopping and visiting the sights, you can enjoy the relaxed and informal ambience of the Cosmopolitan Restaurant or a quiet drink in the Monboddio Bar.

RADISSON BLU ★★★★★

80 High Street, EH1
The Radisson SAS Edinburgh is located in the heart of downtown Edinburgh, very close to the main shopping thoroughfare of Prince's Street and midway between Edinburgh Castle and the Palace of Holyrood House, along what is known as the 'Royal Mile'. The exterior of the hotel has been designed to blend in with the medieval architecture of the neighbourhood while inside it is entirely modern. For relaxation there is a fully equipped leisure club with jetstream pool, sauna and solarium or you can enjoy the mellow ambience of Dickson's Lounge and Bar.

THE THISTLE EDINBURGH ★★★★★

107, Leith Street EH1
The Thistle enjoys a super location in the heart of the city, just a stone's throw from the world famous Prince's Street. The interior is modern and pleasant, with a spacious reception area and bright appealing rooms. The hotel features Craigs Restaurant where all the dishes are prepared using finest local produce, or in contrast the Boston Bean Company, an informal American style alternative serving an excellent range of meals.

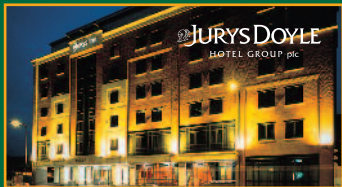

JURYS INN ★★★

Jeffrey Street, EH1
One of Edinburgh's newest hotels, the Jurys Inn is in the heart of the city within easy reach of the conference centre, the business district, Edinburgh Castle and the major tourist attractions. The restaurant serves excellent a la carte and table d'hôte menus while you can pop into the Inn Pub for a light meal and a pint.
