Ahem..... Empire State Building, Chrysler Building, Wall Street & the Stock Exchange, Ellis Island immigration centre & the Statue of Liberty, Central Park, McDonalds & Burger King!, Chinatown, Brooklyn Bridge, Madison Square Garden, Lower East Side Tenement Museum, in fact you could spend 6 months in the city and not see all it has to offer.

Chrysler Building

You have arrived in the mecca of shameless consumerism and one-up extravagance. Top retailers have their flagship outlets on Fifth Avenue including Trump Tower shopping mall, Tiffany's, Harry Winston, Cartier and Saks, to name a few. For department stores you have Macy's, Bloomingdale's, Barney's, Lord & Taylor, Bergdorf Goodman.

Macy's

4 MUSEUMS

This is one of the most museum-laden cities on Earth and you have a dizzying array to choose from. The most famous are: the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Guggenheim Museum, Natural History, Brooklyn Museum, Frick Collection.

COMFORT INN TIMES SQUARE SOUTH ★★★

305 West 39th Street, NY 10018

This hotel has a superb location in midtown West Manhattan at the southern end of the Theatre District (with over 60 playhouses to choose from), Times Square & Macy's Department Store about 5min away and the Empire State about a 10min walk. This hotel is simple and functional in presentation and layout; the rooms are basic but perfectly adequate. As with most NY hotels breakfast is 'free' because it is so minimal.
